9. All Fellows grant Promoter the right to use said Fellow’s name, city, and other information as contained in the entry application for publicity and Program purposes, and to generally promote the charitable endeavors and mission of Promoter, without compensation.

10. Promoter shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever which is suffered (including but not limited to indirect or consequential loss) or for any personal injury suffered or sustained in connection with the Program except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law.

11. As a condition of accepting entry to the Program, each Fellow must sign any legal documentation as and in the form required by Promoter, including but not limited to a legal release and indemnity form.

12. Each applicant's personal information ("PI") is collected to enable Promoter to administer and promote this Program and the Fellows. The PI of each Fellow may be provided to third parties who are assisting Promoter, including suppliers, deliverers and authorities that regulate the Program. Entrants who fail to provide all requested PI, may be determined by the Promoter, at its sole discretion, to be ineligible to partake in the Program. Errors and omissions may be accepted at the Promoter's discretion. Failure by Promoter to enforce any of its rights at any stage does not constitute a waiver of those rights. The collection, use and disclosure of personal information provided in connection with this promotion is further governed by Promoter's Privacy Policy.

13. Promoter assumes no responsibility for any error, omission, interruption, corruption, deletion, defect, delay in operation or transmission, communications line failure, theft or destruction or unauthorised access to, or alteration of, applications. Promoter is not responsible for any problems or technical malfunction of any telephone network or lines, computer networks and systems, servers, or providers, computer equipment, software, failure of any e-mail or entry to be received by Promoter on account of technical problems or traffic congestion on the Internet or at any web site, or any combination of them, including any injury or damage to any Applicant's or any other person's computer related to or resulting from participation or downloading any materials in this Program.

14. All applications become the property of Promoter. As such, Promoter is the owner of all copyright and all other intellectual property in the applications, and to the extent Promoter is not considered the owner, each Applicant hereby transfers and assigns all right and title in and to the information contained in the entries to Promoter.

15. The Program will be governed by the laws of the the Republic of South Africa and subject to the jurisdiction and venue of the courts residing in South Africa.

16. Promoter reserves the right in its sole discretion to disqualify any individual who Promoter has reason to believe has breached any of these conditions, or engaged in any unlawful or other improper misconduct calculated to jeopardise the fair and proper conduct of the Program. The Promoter's legal rights to recover damages or other compensation from such an offender are reserved.

17. If for any reason the Program is not capable of running as planned, including due to infection by computer virus, bugs, tampering, unauthorised intervention, fraud, technical failures or any other causes beyond the control of Promoter, which corrupt or affect the administration security, fairness or integrity or proper conduct of this Program, Promoter reserves the right in its sole discretion to disqualify any individual who tampers with the entry process or to cancel, terminate, modify or suspend the Program.

18. Prior to Fellows being notified of such status by Promoter, Promoter may cancel, postpone, modify, or otherwise terminate the Program in Promoter's sole discretion. In the case of the intervention of any outside agent or event which naturally changes the result or prevents or hinders its determination, including but not limited to vandalism, power failures, tempests, natural disasters, acts of God, civil unrest, strikes; Promoter may in its absolute discretion cancel the Program and/or recommence it from the start on the same or different conditions at a later date.
